- 12.2 We recognise that it is essential to employ the best people to deliver high quality services to our clients and as such we will ensure that prejudice, stereotypes and irrelevant factors are not used to exclude potential candidates for jobs within the Council or to prevent people from doing their jobs to the best of their ability.
- 12.3 We also recognise that equality is part of achieving efficiency, effectiveness and value for money in the way we use resources, including the way we recruit, employ and manage.
- 12.4 This Policy therefore seeks to:

- Enhance and promote high quality services which are responsive to the needs of service users, partners and stakeholders.
- Assist in creating a productive and prejudice free working environment Which treats all employees fairly and with respect.
- Demonstrate and promote a commitment to equality by challenging discrimination and valuing diversity amongst employees.
- Improve the motivation, performance, skills and morale of the workforce.

12.5 We acknowledge that equal opportunity is the responsibility of every employee within the Council, particularly those who have line management responsibility in the workplace.

12.6 The Council's commitment to equality of opportunity will ensure that no potential or current employee or anyone using our services will receive less favourable treatment because of:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender Reassignment
- Marriage & Civil Partnership
- Pregnancy & Maternity
- Race
- Religion & Belief
- Sex
- Sexual Orientation

12.7 All employees will be made fully aware of this Policy and without exception must adhere to its requirements. Any employee who feels that they have grounds for complaint in relation to discrimination, bullying, harassment or victimisation has the right to pursue their complaint through the relevant internal policies and procedures.

13.0 BEST EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE

Discrimination Based on Stereotyped Decision Making

13.1 Persons responsible for making decisions affecting access to jobs, training or promotion or in providing goods, facilities or services may unintentionally use stereotypes in their decision making.

- 13.2 It is the tendency to see others as stereotypes which can lead most easily to discriminatory practices. It has an undesirable tendency for example either to affect negatively the chances of success of certain applicants or to channel them into particular occupations or positions deemed appropriate to the particular stereotype or to discriminate against them in the provision of services.
- 13.3 It is essential therefore that all employees making decisions affecting access to jobs, training or promotion, or providing services, guard against discrimination based on common assumptions, that individuals because of their sex, race, marital status, colour, nationality, disability etc. possess characteristics that make them unsuitable for employment in certain types of jobs, or for the receipt of certain services.

Recruitment, Selection and Promotion

- 13.4 Recruitment and promotion will be based on fair and justifiable job-related criteria. Advertisements and job profiles will reflect clearly the specific needs of the position and any bias which could lead to unjustifiable discrimination either direct or indirect will be eliminated.
- 13.5 The Council will comply with the guidance set out in the Codes of Practice in force from time to time in respect of the Equality Act 2010 in relation to the elimination of discrimination in the field of employment against disabled people or persons who have had a disability.
- 13.6 The recruitment, promotion and selection process is of crucial importance to this policy and in order to eliminate direct and indirect discrimination it must be carried out according to consistent and objective job related criteria.
- 13.7 The main steps in the process to ensure this are detailed below:

Vacancy

- 13.8 Time Table - recruitment frequently takes place in pressurised circumstances. For the process to be carried out as efficiently as possible, it will be essential that a clear time table is drawn up. This will ensure that interviewers and interviewees know when they need to be available.
- 13.10 The criteria listed should be the considered specification of the minimum requirements of the job and experience essential to meet those requirements and carry out the job satisfactorily. The criteria contained in the job profile should be strictly relevant to the job and not necessarily restrictive or inflated so as to exclude particular disadvantaged groups, for example, care should be taken when:

- (a) requiring specific qualifications rather than the ability or potential ability to do the job.
- (b) age barriers or minimum periods of relevant experience.

(c) restrictions relating to physical ability etc.

- 13.11 When publishing vacancies, all applicants shall be informed of the Council's Equal Opportunities policy.
- 13.12 Application Forms - used by the Council, will ensure that the form does not ask questions which are detrimental to the Equal Opportunities Policy in that it requires information which is irrelevant to consideration on merit for the post in question. The application form will not be used as a test of literacy unless a standard of literacy is a genuine requirement of the job.
- 13.13 Short-Listing - Short-listing will be undertaken by the appropriate members / Officers and must be based on the job and person specification alone.
- 13.14 Interviewing - All persons making appointments must endeavour to conduct interviews on an objective basis and shall deal only with the applicant's suitability for the job and ability to fulfil the job requirements. Questions asked of candidates must relate only to the job. For example, candidates should not be asked questions about their personal circumstances or family commitments. Where necessary, to ensure their availability for unusual work variations, it should be done in an objective manner and not be personalised.

Terms and Conditions of Service

- 13.15 Any local agreements and the implementation of National and Local Conditions of Service will be applied fairly to all employees.

Disabled Applicants

- 13.16 (a) The Council is a Disability Symbol User.
(b) The Council will guarantee an interview to a disabled applicant who meets the essential job/person specification requirements. Applicants must have the opportunity for a fair interview and must be assessed on the basis of their ability, not their disability.
