

Policy for the Co-option of Members

1. Introduction

This policy sets out the procedure to ensure that there is compliance with legislation and continuity of procedures in the co-option of members to Ferryhill Town Council ('the Town Council'). The Co-option procedure is entirely managed by the Town Council and this policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

2. Co-option

The Co-option of a Town Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Town Council and no poll (by-election) has been called. A casual vacancy occurs when:

- A Councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- A Councillor resigns;
- A Councillor dies;
- A Councillor becomes disqualified;
- A Councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of a Council committee or sub-committee or to attend as a representative of the Town Council a meeting of an outside body.

The Town Council must notify the Returning Officer of Durham County Council (DCC) of a Casual Vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors notify DCC stating that an election is requested.

If a by-election is called, a polling station(s) will be set up by DCC and the electors will be asked to vote for candidates who will have put themselves forward by way of nomination paper. The Town Council will pay the costs of the election. The electors have fourteen (14) days (not including weekends, bank holidays and other notable days) to claim the by-election; but DCC will advise the Clerk of the closing date.

If more than one candidate is nominated, a by-election takes place; but if only one candidate is put forward, they are duly elected without a ballot.

If ten residents do not request a ballot within fourteen (14) days of the vacancy notice being posted, as advertised by DCC, the Town Council is able to co-opt a volunteer.

3. Confirmation of Co-option

On receipt of written confirmation from the Electoral Services Office of DCC the casual vacancy can be filled by means of Co-option. The Town Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks on the Town Council's notice boards and website;
- Advise the Town Council that the Co-option Policy has been activated.

The Town Council is not obliged to fill any vacancy. Even if the Town Council invites applications for co-option, it is not obliged to select anyone from the candidates that apply.

However, despite this, it is not desirable that electors be left underrepresented for a significant length of time. Neither does it contribute to effective and efficient working of the Town Council if there are insufficient Councillors to share the workload equitably; to provide a broad cross-section of skills and interests; or to achieve meeting quorums without difficulty.

Councillors elected by co-option are full members of the Town Council.

4. Eligibility of Candidates

The Town Council can consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- He/she is an elector of the Parish; or
- has resided in the Parish for the past twelve (12) months, or rented/tenanted land or other premises in the Parish; or
- had his/her principal place of work in the Parish; or
- has lived within three (3) miles (direct) of the Parish.

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main are:

- Holding a paid office under the Local Authority;
- Bankruptcy;
- Having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three (3) months without the option of a fine during the five (5) years preceding the election; and
- Being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.

5. Applications

Members may point out the vacancies and the process to any qualifying candidate(s).

Although there is no statutory requirement to do so, candidates will be requested to:

- Submit information about themselves by way of completing a short application form (Appendix A)
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules (Appendix B)

Following receipt of applications, the next suitable full Council meeting will have an agenda item 'To receive written applications for the office of Town Councillor and to Co-opt a candidate to fill the existing vacancy'. Copies of the application(s) will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least three (3) clear days before the meeting of the full Council when the Co-option will be considered.

All such documents will be treated as strictly confidential by the Clerk and Councillors.

Candidates will be sent a full agenda of the meeting at which they are to be considered for appointment, together with a copy of the Code of Conduct, Standing Orders and Financial Regulations of the Town Council. Candidates will also be informed that they will be invited to speak about their application at the meeting.

6. At the Co-option Meeting

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to the town councillors (members), give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of the Town Council. The process will be carried out in the public session and there will be no private discussions between members prior to a vote being taken. However, where the Town Council is discussing the merits of candidates and inevitably their personal attributes, this could be prejudicial, and they should resolve to exclude the members of the press and public, including candidates.

As soon as all candidates have finished giving their submissions, the Town Council will proceed to a vote with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the Councillors in attendance (as defined in the Standing Orders) and a vote by a show of hands (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 13).

A recorded vote may be requested under Standing Orders, so as to show whether each councillor present and voting, gave his/her vote for or against that question.

In order for a candidate to be co-opted to the Town Council, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority.

A co-opted candidate will sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office, including an undertaking to abide by the Town Council's Code of Conduct, either before or at the next meeting of the Town Council.

The Clerk will notify DCC Electoral Services Office of the co-option of the new town councillor.

The co-opted town councillor will complete a 'Notification of Disclosable Pecuniary and Other Interests' form which the Clerk will submit to the Monitoring Officer at DCC within 28 days of the co-option.

If insufficient candidates are co-opted, the process should continue, whereby the vacancies are again advertised.
